

Account Trainee
Multinational Underwriting Services
Globex International Group
Full Time, Shelton, CT Office

Job Description:

We are seeking a highly energetic, intelligent and well-organized individual to join our Multinational Underwriting Services division. The chosen candidate will be trained to handle multinational Property, Marine, Casualty, Professional and Accident and Health insurance programs and develop technical multi-line expertise. Day to day activities include supporting senior staff on account evaluation, account development and follow-through, development of proposals to our international network of insurers in 160 countries, utilization of various software, office assistance, filing and overall portfolio support and development.

The Account Trainee will be asked to get involved with a myriad of Globex projects from a business retention and business development standpoint. Supporting our Network Manager in her daily interactions with our global network of insurers will be a key part of the position. These activities will allow the chosen candidate to learn the Globex way, the essentials of our business and how we differentiate ourselves.

We are in a long-term growth mode with excellent advancement opportunities for this position. The ideal candidate will grow from Account Trainee to International Account Manager for our MUS division. Our professionals are recognized as international experts in the industry, and the chosen candidate will earn this reputation over time. The timeframes for accomplishing this will be up to the individual.

Requirement:

Recent college graduate with Bachelor Degree in Insurance related major.

The ideal candidate must have a genuine desire to learn and grow with strong organizational skills. Proficiency in standard computer software, especially Word, Excel, PowerPoint required.

Foreign language skills and/or familiarity with other cultures are required.

A competitive salary plus benefits make up the compensation package.

About us:

Globex International Group is a leader in the provision of multinational risk management services to insurers and brokers. Our Multinational Underwriting Services division works with a select number of insurance companies providing them with the capability to offer their products worldwide. The organization is structured to allow maximum personal, professional and income development. Our ability to identify and exploit trends and opportunities in the global market place enables us to maintain our leadership position and set the pace for continual growth and expansion globally.

For further information, please visit our website at www.globexintl.com

To apply for this position, please contact our HR at hr@globexintl.com.